The information about this

Service, which also constitutes the User Content, may include, and is not limited to, the type of Service, the availability of the Service, experience with the Service, and price of the Service.

Your Profile is publicly accessible to Registered Members of the CatSwoppr Platform. CatSwoppr does not produce User Content for any Profile.

Nor do we control the timing, deliverability, or any other aspect of the Service related to cats provided by Users on the Platform.

As a User, you are solely responsible for any Service related to cats that you provide, or wish to obtain. It is up to you to decide how you provide or need the Service, and how you display the appropriate User Content on the Platform.

We do not control, supervise, or provide any equipment used by Users in their provision of the Service related to cats.

As a User, you have the ability to post or submit User Content, such as, your Profile and the Service related to cats, which you provide or wish to obtain, and also your reviews of your interaction with other Users on our Platform. User Content that you upload and display on our Platform, or transmit to another User, may not always be withdrawn after it is posted on our Platform.

We do not endorse any Visitor, Registered Member, Profile, User Content or Service related to cats. Any reference on our Platform to a Registered Member, Profile, User Content and Service that has been 'verified' (or otherwise checked) by us, indicates only that the User has gone through a verification or identification process relevant to CatSwoppr and nothing else. However, once a booking is completed, we ask you to be courteous and fair, and to respect any price or other conditions of that booking, that you and your fellow User have agreed upon.

If you post a price for a Service to be provided or desired by you on our Platform, and if this price is accepted by another User, you agree that this price is an essential part of the booking request between you and another User. You agree not to change the price once it has been accepted by another User.

As a User, you agree that CatSwoppr is not responsible or liable for any pricing arrangement between you and another User of our Platform for a Service related to cats, which is to be provided or desired by you, nor is CatSwoppr responsible or liable for the completion of the related payment between you and another User.

As a User, you agree that CatSwoppr is not responsible or liable for any damages or losses in connection with any Service related to cats, which is to be provided and rendered by you, or desired to be obtained and obtained by you, nor is CatSwoppr responsible or liable for any monetary transactions and interactions between you and any other User(s) of the Platform. You, as a User, accept all risks in using our Platform including, but not limited to, all risks associated with any online or offline interaction with any other User(s). You agree to take all necessary precautions when you will meet another User.

We reserve the right, but have no obligation, to monitor any disputes you may have with another User due to reaction and interaction through our Platform for the purposes of orderliness and good fellowship on our Platform.

CatSwoppr's Cat Day Calendar provides the possibility to share User Content up to a maximum total capacity. Uploaded Content is stored on CatSwoppr's servers for a limited period of time after which the ability to download expires.

Depending on the transfer type some limitations apply. For example, after the expiry period CatSwoppr will permanently delete the uploaded User Content. This content will not be available nor retrievable anymore.

The basic functionality of CatSwoppr's sharing possibility, specifically the Cat Day Calendar, is (currently) free from charge.

CatSwoppr treats User Content as confidential and does not control the use of download links, regardless of whether they are originally distributed by CatSwoppr or by you as User. Recipients can forward the links and allow others to use them. You are solely responsible for the User Content you upload and share.

CatSwoppr Purrrmium offers a paid subscription version of CatSwoppr's Cat Day Calendar that - compared to the free version - offers you a set of premium services and different subscription terms (listed below).

Extra paid options XXX

You can also provide a comment, review and/or rating in response to the User Content that you or another person has posted. Your comment, review and/or rating may not include the other User's phone number or home address.

Nor may your comment, review and/or rating contain other personal information about the other User, that is not contained in the other User's public Profile. Your comment, review and/or rating shall be limited to your personal reaction to the User Content, and/or your personal first-hand experience of the Service provided or obtained, i.e. information that you cannot have heard or read from someone else. This comment, review and/or rating must be factually accurate.

We reserve the right to remove a comment, review and/or rating, if we believe it violates our Rules and Guidelines for use of our Platform.
